Selectmen's Report

We made it through 1997 without any extremely bad storms, winter or summer. We had the usual snow storms, icy roads and cold winter winds, but spring finally came along with nice weather and the flower and vegetable gardens came alive again.

The New Hampshire Electric Co-op cleared along their right-of-way so we could have fewer outages as a result of trees going down. The increased open spaces along the roads should help road maintenance, although, many of us liked the look and feel of all the trees towering above. We wrote to all property owners so that usable firewood could be put to use if the land owners did not intend to use it..

Bill Harris and sons set up the rest of the stones in the Mountain View Cemetery after the vandalism spree in 1996. He insisted that it didn't cost him much of anything and so would not take any repayment. Thus we still have the $100 that was donated and will be used for some unexpected cemetery expense. We received a free maple tree from the New Hampshire Arbor Day Assn. We thought it would be a 6 to 8 foot tree that the Selectmen could plant. When a 300 pound ball with a 25 foot tree arrived, we needed help. Dan and Jessie Elliott came to the Town Hall with equipment and planted it along side of Parker Field across the road. We hope it lives for a long time. Bill Harris mowed the cemeteries and the Community Building lawn all last summer and it did look neat and well cared for.

Stefan Cimikowski re-painted the ramp at the Town Hall and Elliott Construction again put a sand pile along the parking area for any resident to use on his own driveway.

Through Laurie Elliott, we learned that the fife and drum and the old 24 star flag that were used by the Benton Fife and Drum Corps around 1913 were in the possession of the Clough family estate. Laurie's father, Tom Sawyer of Bath went to see David Clough and Lorna Clough Fogg and they were happy to donate them to the Town of Benton. Our Town Clerk, Lyn Bandy, built a shelf for these special mementos and we hope all will notice them at the Town Hall.

911 is getting closer and posts and road signs will go up in the spring. We will then get free cards from the Woodsville post office and the new numbers will have to be put up to officially mark our new addresses. This started out to be an easy six month job - three years ago!

Selectmen's Report (Con't)

Benton lost a very active Senior Citizen, Seraphene Harris, on May 28, 1997. Sera was part of the large Boutin clan in Benton with four brothers and their extended families, as well as her own, the Harris family. Sera, with her husband, Bill Harris right along side helping, organized and got many donations for the large yard and bake sales at the Town Hall, always to benefit the cemeteries. She saw to it that the stones were cleaned and straightened and that the front wall at the Mountain View Cemetery was re-aligned and additionally supported.

Sera and Bill, with some donations, saw to it that the big meeting room at the Town Hall was cleaned up and repainted and they put a new floor in the entryway.

These are some of the recent things that Sera did for the town. I think that the rest of us could see things that needed to be done, but it took a feisty pusher like Sera to see that they got done. We shall miss her and fondly remember her.

We need to bring up a situation that is not getting any better. I think everyone is aware that Benton taxes are a lot less than our neighboring towns. This is possible only because we are smaller and most of our town officers do their community jobs in the evenings and weekends. We have only token payments for jobs done - some are totally voluntary; no pay at all. We need more community minded people to help with town jobs.

We need people for the Planning Board, Supervisors, of the Checklist, a Health Officer, an Auditor for next year, and others. We want to keep our cost of doing business and thereby our taxes, DOWN. Only you can keep it going. Please volunteer to help.

Stefan Cimikowski

Albert J. Boutin, Jr.

ROAD REPORT

The year went off without too many hitches by way of road maintenance for the year of 1997. The money spent for rebuilding in 96, not only gave us better roads to travel, it also helped cut some of the maintenance cost this year. We did the general work of graveling and grading our gravel roads. We replaced and reset some culverts and cleaned some ditches.

We knew in the fall we would be well under budget and the Selectmen discussed the idea of doing some more rebuilding on some of the rough spots or paver shimming on the spots where we left off the year before. The weather had other ideas when winter arrived the first week of November and stayed. Oh well, maybe next year.

Respectfully submitted

REPORT OF TOWN FOREST FIRE WARDEN AND STATE FOREST RANGER

To aid your Forest Fire Warden, Fire Department and State Forest Ranger, contact your local Warden or Fire Department to find out if a permit is required. Violations of RSA 227-L:17, the fire permit law and the other burning laws of the State of New Hampshire are misdemeanors punishable by fines of up to $2,000 and/or a year in jail. Violators are also liable for all fire suppression costs.

There are ten Forest Rangers who work for the New Hampshire Division of Forests and Lands, Forest Protection Bureau. State Forest Rangers are available to assist communities with forest fire suppression, prevention and training programs as well as the enforcement of forest fire and timber harvest laws. If you have any questions regarding forest fire or timber harvest laws, please call our office at 271-2217.

There are 2400 Forest Fire Wardens and Deputy Forest Fire Wardens throughout the state. Each town has a Forest Fire Warden and several Deputy Wardens who assist the Forest Rangers with forest fire suppression, prevention, and law enforcement. The 1997 fire season was a safe period for wildland firefighters with no major injuries reported. The drought conditions experienced during the early summer months was a significant factor resulting in the total number of fires reported during the season.

The State of New Hampshire operates 15 fire towers, 2 mobile patrols and 3 contract aircraft patrols. This early detection and reports from citizens aid in the quick response from local fire departments. This is a critical factor in controlling the size of wildland fires and keeping the loss of property and suppression costs as low as possible.

TO THE SCHOOL BOARD AND CITIZENS OF BENTON, I SUBMIT MY THIRD ANNUAL REPORT

SAU 23 faced changes and challenges in 1997. At the SAU level, Denis Ward of the Monroe School Board continued as Chair of the SAU 23 Board. Sarah Lester of Warren was elected Vice Chair. At their District Meeting in March, 1997, Monroe voters decided to study the feasibility of withdrawing from SAU 23. It was felt that after about 20 years of questions about whether or not SAU participation was cost-effective for this school of approximately 100 students, the issue should be investigated. A Monroe withdrawal would increase the district assessments of remaining districts. However, any change, if the town determined one was needed, would take place in the 1999-2000 school year. The Feasibility Study Committee's Plan was approved by the State Board of Education in January. While the Monroe School Board in January voted four to one not to support the withdrawal plan for the district, voters at the Monroe District Meeting March 10 will make the final decision.

Finding the appropriate, affordable administrative staffing mix for SAU 23 has continued to be a challenge for the twenty-four member SAU 23 Board. When Lynda Fredenberg retired in June, 1997, a half-position in the Finance Office was eliminated in an effort to cut expenses. Marilyn Newman joined the staff part-time in Lynda's place. Her very capable work has already made her an important team member at the SAU. Ed Emond, Business Administrator, also resigned in June, 1997 to take over similar responsibilities in Laconia, New Hampshire. Charles McCoy was selected to replace Emond in July, 1997. By November Mr. McCoy agreed that the financial challenges of administering a six district SAU were more than he had bargained for and resigned.

At the request of Finance Office staff, the SAU did not immediately attempt to replace the Business Administrator position. Staff asked for time to complete the current budget cycle with guidance from district auditors and NH Departments of Revenue and Education. This allows the SAU Board seek advice from finance experts to determine what kind of Finance Office staffing arrangement makes best sense given the level of skills that have been developed in-house over the past three years, in particular by Pat Amsden and Jean Sutherland, who have taken over the day-to-day operation of the Finance Office with assistance from Connie Verratti, Sherry Brill and Marilyn Newman.

In Benton, Veronica Saffo assumed Chair of the Board taking over from Laurie Elliott. Veronica also represents Benton on the SAU 23 Executive Board. In discussions of Board responsibilities, Saffo has noted the importance of Benton Board Members keeping abreast of school issues in Haverhill, where educational program decisions that affect Benton students are made. In that light, information about Haverhill's year is included here.

Finance issues have been in the forefront this year in Haverhill as changes in two special education placements after the budget was set in March placed the school budget in deficit. New revenues and some restructuring of special education and student support programs has allowed the district to maintain educational program quality while we continue to grapple with high special education costs.

A resignation by a special educator at Woodsville High School prompted a series of job changes which resulted in Michael Penkert joining the SAU as Director of Instructional Support Services, a position which Donna Hart had held until choosing to return to Haverhill as a special educator. Michael comes to SAU 23 from the Becket School where he had worked for many years. He will be leading the district's assessment of special education and Title One programs, a process begun in the fall and continuing throughout the school year. Special education costs have escalated, an experience not unique to Haverhill but very problematic in a district with limited resources for schools.

A question asked in the Haverhill March 1997 District Meeting shapes the rest of this report: that is, what are the long range goals for our schools and are we making progress in meeting them? Six goals help direct our work. The Mission Statement that prefaces the goals is: All students in SAU 23 schools will be provided the highest quality of academic instruction in positive, safe learning environments that promote inquiry and appreciation for life long learning, so that graduates have the knowledge and skills necessary to participate fully and productively in a democratic, technologically advanced society.

We have made progress toward our goals in the past year.

1. All students will enter school ready to learn. Although not every three and four year old are enrolled in preschool, the White House, SAU 23's pre-school program housed at Woodsville Elementary School, continues to thrive in its second year of operation. Sarah Jean Harris, the able instructor who set up the program, left to assume a position at Bethlehem Elementary School. Deb Smith, a special educator at Woodsville Elementary School with previous background in early childhood education, has become the White House educator in charge. Head Start continues to offer programs there on Tuesdays and Thursdays, with the SAU 23 programs offered in two sessions on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

The Haverhill Community Resource Consortium, headed by Shand Wentworth, has assumed the responsibility for Success by Six programs in Haverhill. Family Night Out, which helps to link families to existing services in the area, is planned for March this year.

2. All students will be successful learners, performing at their maximum learning potentials. One measure of success here is student performance on New Hampshire's Assessment of Academic Progress at third, sixth and tenth grades. Student scores are reported below. Woodsville Elementary School students seem to be showing the benefit of teacher attention to instructional practices that support student success on the tests. Over the past four years, student scores have moved up from the lowest categories, with recent scores moving into the Advanced levels. Woodsville High School has scored at approximately state average for two years. As teachers develop a better understanding of the tests, we might anticipate even higher scores at the high school level. Haverhill Cooperative Middle School has not scored well in either year. Mrs. Tracy has organized a team of teachers to analyze the tests and review instructional practices to make sure that student scores do not remain low.

The work of SAU 23's Curriculum Advisory Committee continues with Nancy Sandell of Piermont Village School as Chair. SAU 23 and local boards adopted the Curriculum Frameworks for Health, Physical Education and Art this year. The Technology Committee requested a revision of the proposed Framework based on our districts' newly developed Technology Plans. A social studies curriculum review is also planned to bring the SAU 23 curriculum in line with the NH State Frameworks.

Haverhill schools completed a three-year Technology Plan this fall. It has received state approval and forms the basis for grant applications as well as in-district funding plans. On the Warrant, at the recommendation of the Haverhill Citizen's Budget Committee as well as the School Board, is an Article intended to fund the first phase of the Technology Plan. We are starting with Woodsville Elementary School where the Plan calls for networking computers, which will allow students to access more software in the classrooms, and for a Library Cluster of networked computers which will allow students to do research through Internet. The Article also provides for district-wide professional development for faculty and staff to help us better use the technology we have for instructional purposes.

Student assessment practices are getting a careful look this spring. Teacher committees from each school will be asked to develop a coherent assessment plan pre-K-12 that aligns with our curriculum and assures us that students are meeting consistent district benchmarks as they move from grade to grade. Professional development for teachers on strengthening student assessments continued in January, 1998 when WES and HCMS teachers joined Monroe faculty in a day-long workshop. Further work on this topic will continue over the next year.

Block scheduling at Woodsville High School is intended to provide students with more academic learning time. A mid-year survey of the program by students indicate that they support the new design, although they had many suggestions for teachers on how to improve on it. Mr. Labs and WHS faculty are analyzing the survey to make adjustments for the second term.

3. Students will learn in safe, positive learning environments.

Teachers have invested a considerable amount of time analyzing school climate issues this year, with a School Forum and several school board meetings devoted to discussion of school discipline and other climate issues. In the summer, 1997, SAU 23 sponsored a week-long workshop at Haverhill Cooperative Middle School with Mike Mezzochi in which teachers from each school developed plans for student support centers. Mezzochi has spent two additional weeks in the schools during this year and will be offering a second week-long workshop in the summer on school climate. In addition, all SAU 23 students in grades three through twelve will be taking a Student Aspirations Survey this year. Developed by the National Center for Student Aspirations, this survey gives guidance to faculty and staff about student attitudes about school and future plans. A student mentoring program that links WHS students with elementary and middle school students has also been successful in encouraging students to read and develop stronger connections to school programs. A successful grant writing summer led by Bruce Labs, Woodsville High School's principal, funded the district's mentoring activities as well as a late bus for students. All these activities are part of the schools' long range plan to ensure that schools have in place the kind of supports that allow students to thrive.

In terms of the physical environment of schools, the Honeywell improvements in the buildings' heating, lighting and air quality systems have made a significant difference in the schools. We are realizing the promised efficiencies in electrical usage and heating costs. Air quality is much better, particularly at Woodsville Elementary School. Richard Patten, Custodian at WES who works with Honeywell managers to maintain the systems in all schools, has done an excellent job for us.

4. Teachers will exhibit the highest levels of professional practice in their work.

Teachers have participated in several focused professional development activities aimed at strengthening our literacy and math instruction. Workshops and in-class assistance with Debby Head and Libby Pollett, math consultants who have worked with us over the past three years, continue to improve math problem-solving instruction. Debby and Libby will be returning this summer for another week-long activity in Haverhill schools.

Strengthening our literacy programs is another target for the schools. Teachers from all three schools participated in a week-long Literacy workshop last summer, and many more plan to do so again this summer. This kind of targeted professional development, sustained over time, is preferred to "one-shot" programs that, while inspiring, tend not to have the lasting impact of consultants who get to know our teachers and programs over time. The technology professional development that will be provided if the Technology Article passes will focus on effective use of technology to support instruction in the core subject areas.

The new teacher salary schedule adopted last year during successful collective bargaining negotiations also seems to be meeting its goal. More teachers than ever in the past six years have notified the SAU of Track Changes, meaning they have completed course work needed to move from one salary track to another. This was the hope of school board and teacher negotiators when the new schedule was adopted.

5. Parents and community members will understand and support school goals and direction. This goal may be the most illusive, but we continue to try to improve communication about the schools in a number of ways. The SAU 23 School-Community Forums allow community members to hear from the consultants who work with us. Last year, Debby Head and Libby Pollett held an evening on mathematics instruction. Mike Mezzochi spent an evening discussing student discipline issues with parents. The School Forum facilitators, Dale Fadden, Bruce Bishop and Scott Edwards have held three round table discussions at School Board meetings that have been well attended and very well organized.

Although an eye operation interrupted my SAU 23 NOTES for awhile, these NOTES, published with the SAU 23 Calendar in the Showcase each month, are another attempt to keep people informed about school programs. Under the leadership of Chip Harris, Chair of Haverhill's School Board, we initiated a newsletter sent to every postal patron in Haverhill in the spring of 1997 to let the public know about issues that have come before the Board during the year. A 1998 issue is also planned and will be sent to Benton families as well.

In spite of these multiple strategies for keeping the public informed, and even with the monthly school board meetings open for public participation, we still hear that communication needs to be improved and continue to look for ways to do so.

6. School budgets will be fiscally responsible while promoting academic excellence. The budget that follows is an example of our attempt to meet this goal. The budget maintains school programs at or slightly above the current year's funding levels. We have begun to restructure the special education program, adding a resource room at Woodsville Elementary School and maintaining the Multi-Age Classroom (called MAC) at Haverhill Cooperative Middle School. These programs provide for a broader continuum of services for students, breaking our reliance on the hiring of Instructional Assistants as our only alternative for students in need of special services. These changes have strengthened our programs and realized significant cost savings - a win-win for students and taxpayers. We thank the Haverhill Citizens' Budget Committee. Chaired by Gary Elliott, citizen members Karen Whalen, Roland Clifford, Phil Conrad and Scott Edwards, and Board members Donna Roche, Kevin Shelton and Harry Norcross for helping to develop the budget recommendations and Technology Warrant Article.

Progress toward our goals is possible because of the leadership of the School Boards. They have maintained an unwavering focus on academic achievement and teaching quality. The time and attention the three Benton Board Members and the seven Haverhill Board Members give to our schools is laudable. As always at this time of year, thanks are due to the School Boards for the clear direction, leadership and on-going support of our schools; to the principals and assistant principals for tireless and able leadership; to the faculty and staff for dedication to our students; and to the Benton community for your support for the schools.

Having ended on a school finance note last year, I would be remiss in not acknowledging the potential importance of the NH Supreme Court's decision to re-design school financing this year. The proposed changes in financing are likely to bring much needed tax relief to Benton and Haverhill, and, with it, the possibility that our educational programs, which have always been adequate thanks to local voters' support for schools, will be even stronger.

Respectfully submitted,

Linda J. Nelson
Superintendent
